Three Famous Cuisines

There are many delicious cuisines around the world. In Turkish cuisine, kebab is prepared with spices and herbs. First, the meat is chopped and seasoned. Then, it is grilled over a fire. It is served with rice and salad. In Italian cuisine, pizza is one of the most popular dishes. The dough is mixed and baked in a hot oven. Finally, fresh ingredients like cheese and tomatoes are added on top. In Japanese cuisine, sushi is a traditional dish. The rice is boiled and cooled. Next, it is served with fish and vegetables. Each cuisine has its own regional flavours and customs.

The Evolution of Communication Technology

Communication technology has evolved rapidly over the past few decades. In the 1990s, people used desktop computers that were large and expensive. They could only browse the internet with slow connections. Then, in the early 2000s, laptops became popular because they were portable and wireless. People started to download music and stream videos online. Smartphones, which were invented around 2007, changed everything. These advanced devices allowed people to connect with others, upload photos, and use applications anywhere. Today, digital platforms that we use daily continue to develop. Innovative gadgets evolve so fast that last year's model already looks outdated.

a) What kind of computers did people use in the 1990s?

b) Why did laptops become popular in the early 2000s?

c) When were smartphones invented?

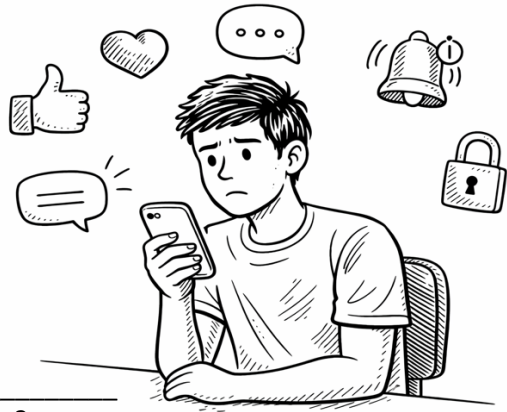

d) What can people do with smartphones?

e) How fast do innovative gadgets evolve today?
