

Name / Surname: _____

Class: _____ Number: _____

Q1. Read the text and answer the questions. (20 points)

An Adventurous Weekend

Last weekend, Dave and his friends went to Antalya for extreme sports. Dave tried paragliding for the first time. He said it was more exciting than canoeing. His friend Mike preferred rafting because it was more challenging than kayaking. They also watched a motor racing event in the afternoon. Dave would rather go paragliding than do bungee-jumping because he finds bungee-jumping disappointing. Mike thinks rafting is more fascinating than skateboarding. They both agreed it was an entertaining weekend.

a) Where did Dave and his friends go last weekend?

b) What did Dave try for the first time?

c) Why did Mike prefer rafting?

d) Why would Dave rather go paragliding than do bungee-jumping?

e) What did they watch in the afternoon?

Q2. Read the text and fill in the blanks with the words from the box. (20 points)

caving / amusing / extreme sports / hang-gliding / take risks / challenging / entertaining

Emma loves adventure. She prefers (1) _____ to other activities because she likes to (2) _____. Last summer, she tried (3) _____ in a deep cave in Cappadocia. It was very dark but really (4) _____. Her brother prefers (5) _____ because flying in the sky is more exciting than walking underground. They both find adventure sports very amusing.

Q3. Look at the table and compare rafting and paragliding. Write at least 5 sentences using comparative adjectives. (20 points)

Feature	Rafting	Paragliding
Difficulty	challenging	more challenging
Speed	fast	faster
Place	rivers	mountains
Fun Level	exciting	more exciting
Risk Level	less risky	riskier

Compare rafting and paragliding. Use comparative adjectives. Write at least 5 sentences.

---

---

---

---

---

---

Q4. Read the text and answer the questions. (20 points)

A Holiday in Cappadocia

Last summer, Chris and his family visited Cappadocia. It is a fascinating destination in central Turkey. They stayed at a bed and breakfast in a rural area near the town. Chris visited the ancient underground cities and saw incredible architecture. His mother preferred the countryside because it was more peaceful than the urban areas. Chris would rather visit historic sites than go to a resort. The square in the town centre had many cultural attractions. It was an unforgettable holiday.

a) Where did Chris and his family go last summer?

b) Where did they stay in Cappadocia?

c) What did Chris visit there?

d) Why did his mother prefer the countryside?

e) What would Chris rather do than go to a resort?

Q5. Imagine you are on holiday. Write a postcard to your friend about a tourist destination. Use the clues below. (20 points)

You are on holiday in a fascinating destination. Write a postcard to your friend Alex. Use the clues below.

- Where are you? (destination, country)
- What is the place like? (ancient, cultural, incredible...)
- What did you visit? (historic site, square, attraction...)
- Where are you staying? (resort, bed and breakfast...)
- How do you feel about the holiday?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---