

1- Read the traveler's opinion and answer the questions given below (5x5=25) E9.5.W1. Students will be able to write a text comparing characteristics of people by giving their opinions.

Tom is very shy and quiet when you first meet him. He does not talk much to people he does not know well. However, once you get to know him, you discover he is very kind and helpful. He always helps his friends with their homework and is there when they need him. Tom loves reading books and playing chess in his free time

Students' own answers such as:
Tom is not so outgoing as Sarah. He is usually shy. Sarah likes to talk and meet new people, but Tom prefers quiet places. Tom is different because he enjoys reading alone, but Sarah enjoys singing and being with friends. They are similar because both are kind. They both like to help their friends.

Sara is an enthusiastic and outgoing girl. She loves meeting new people and making friends. Sara is also very talented; she can play the guitar and sing beautifully. She is confident when she performs on stage in front of many people. She is always ready to help her friends and family. Sara believes it's important to be generous and share what you have with others.

2- Write about who inspires you most answering the questions below. (4x5=20) E9.5.W2. Students will be able to write a text describing their inspirational character.

- 1-Who is she/he?
- 2-What is his/her job?
- 3-What achievements does that person have?
- 4-What are the important characteristics of that person?
- 5-How does that person inspire you?

Students' own answers such as:
Mr. Lee is a teacher. He teaches children how to read and write. He has helped many children learn to love books. Mr. Lee has also won a prize for being the best teacher in his school. He is kind, patient, and always smiling. He makes learning fun for everyone. Mr. Lee inspires me because he shows that with kindness and hard work, you can help others learn and grow. I want to be like him and make a difference in the world.

3- Read the traveler's opinion and answer the questions given below (5x3=15) E9.6.R1. Students will be able to scan short texts describing some famous cities in the world for specific information.

I really like Rome, the capital of Italy. It's a great city with lots of history. Right now it's April, so the weather is getting warm and it's nice to walk around.

The city has many old buildings and you can see places like the Colosseum where gladiators used to fight. Lots of people come to visit Rome, but it's still a fun place with no stress. I'm staying close to a busy street with many shops called Via del Corso. It's perfect for buying gifts and trying Italian ice cream called gelato. I also see people making pizza and pasta, which are famous in Italy. And Rome is known for starting the Roman Empire a long time ago.
